

Follow The Leader...

SARW

Saturday Morning

A1 - DO IT YOURSELF ENERGIZERS Deb Guess

How do you take a room full of strangers and begin to turn them into "community?" How do you add some pizzazz into a sleepy or low-energy crowd? Take one catchy tune, add 8 or so fun movements, and you are well on your way to creating an energizer. Boogie your way into this workshop where we will create and learn to lead these follow the leader style community-builders.

A2 - PICTURE YOUR STORY Karen Fleming

The visual arts bring moments of faith to life. Participants in this course will use visual elements, such as snapshots, magazine pictures, and drawings, to create a storybook of faith. Storybooks of faith in hand, each participant will experiment with telling their story to the group. Participants will also brainstorm creative ideas for using visual storytelling back home. Each participant should bring to the workshop favorite pictures and/or photos that speak to their faith.

A3 - SPOON CARVING Howard Moore

Learn the fun art of spoon carving. Participants will have the opportunity to experience carving one style of cooking/serving spoon. All materials and knives will be provided. Class limited to 12

A4 - AROUND THE CAMPFIRE Craig Bell and Dick Porter

Campfires are wonderful experiences for all ages. They can help wrap up a special day or event, create a mood, or provide a unique opportunity for a wide variety of activities. This workshop will focus on singing, storytelling, drama, devotions, refreshments, and games around a campfire. The class will actually help plan and lead a campfire for the whole SARW group on Saturday night.

A5 - WE'RE ALL IN THIS TOGETHER Josh Jackson & Claire Cline

How do you build community in your youth group, church family, and adult fellowship group? Using initiative, problem solving, and communication activities, this workshop will be an opportunity to find common ground that permits play, laughter, learning, and sharing. Activities will include leading, processing, and debriefing

A6 - LOOKING FOR JESUS IN AN IPOD WORLD Croskeys Royall

Johann Bach once said that the aim and final end of all music should be none other than the glory of God and the refreshment of the soul. Would he still think that after hearing recent releases from Kanye West, Justin Timberlake, Carrie Underwood, and other musicians of our time? YES! While we're together, we'll open our ears, hearts, and minds as we discover how God's grace breaks through to the world in today's music. We'll find ways to use the songs we are hearing "on a daily basis" in Bible Study, worship, and other settings as well as ways that current technology can connect us to the music we want to hear and to create.

Saturday Afternoon

B1 - SPACE FOR SPIRIT Deb Guess

Bring an open mind and a creative spirit ready to explore some new methods for finding "personal connections" to God. We will use color, texture, words, and images to create visual prayer journals. Go home ready to help others learn to "pray in color."

B2 - POT LUCK FUN Beth Gunn and Lisa Diedrick

Gather around the table, get to know each other, laugh, create, share stories, and before you know it, a sense of community has been created! From tabletop relays to hot dice to group building around the table, you will go home equipped with a plethora of great activities to use at church gatherings.

B3 - EACH ONE LEADS ONE- (YOUTH 2 YOUTH) Josh Jackson

Come join in the fun as a teacher AND a student as each participant leads their favorite game. Go home with a wide variety of new game ideas Experience the opportunity to be "gently critiqued" as you practice your game leadership skills in a fun and safe environment.

B4 - WITH THESE HANDS! Brenda Porter and Hen Moore

Make quick and easy crafts (simple journals, decorated photo folders, gift containers, handmade paper boxes) which you can adapt for use with different ages. You'll be ready to go home and lead crafts in a variety of settings - church school, VBS, Logos, youth activities, or church retreats.

B5 - SMALL GROUPS, BIG IMPACT! Chandler Guess

How do I remember twenty-plus names? What do I do if I get a "hard to handle" participant? How am I supposed to know how to lead a small group if I've never done it before? If you've ever asked yourself any of these questions OR would like a refresher course in Small Group Leading, then this workshop is for you, Youth AND adults are invited to this "learn by doing it" workshop designed to equip you to lead any small group, in a BIG way!

Saturday Afternoon Bonus

C1 - DUTCH OVEN COOKING

Learn the fine art of dutch oven cooking in this hands on bonus workshop which follows your normal Saturday afternoon class. You'll learn while you prepare our dutch oven dinner for all the participants. PLUS....you'll have the opportunity to cook, taste and share specialty dishes that won't be on the main menu for the evening.

Sunday Morning

D1 - RECREATION EXPRESS Beth Gunn

Name games, mix and mingle games, trust games—all that at the tip of your fingers. Just a click away on your laptop find over 100 games that can revitalize your recreation repertoire! It's like having a recreation book on your computer that can sort games for you depending on your needs - are you going to be indoors? Do you have 15 people? Are they all elementary aged children or adults? Do you want to leave your group winded and exhausted or do you need games for low key times? We not only will play with the program we will PLAY the GAMES so you go home equipped to lead!

D2 - ACCESSORIZE YOUR CURRICULUM Mary Woodfin

Does your curriculum seem dull, dry, or boring? This workshop will explore ways to spice up your pre-planned curriculum using a little creativity, imagination, and a few great resources. You will learn how to meet the needs of any group regardless of age. Bring your curriculum!

D3 - GOD IS GOOD—ALL THE TIME! Hen Moore

And we'll dance to give our Creator praise! Learn a dance to this high-energy praise song which you can take home to teach. We will even learn a basic clogging step to use with this dance. We'll also learn a simple Hebraic dance that can be used during worship.

D4 - DESIGN ON A DIME GOES TO CHURCH Chandler Guess & Kari Goforth
Does your church's youth room look like a yard sale gone bad? Do your Sunday School classrooms look drab and beyond boring? Are the cluttered hallways of your church just a way to get somewhere else? Bring a curious mind and a creative spark to this workshop designed to get your decorating juices flowing without a huge hit to your church's limited budget. Go home with lots of ideas for how to turn dull and boring rooms into vibrant educational and worship spaces for very little money.

D5 - CELTIC CROSSES Dick Porter and Howard Moore
