FAQ: Faithfully Asking Questions (geared to middle schoolers)

This new quarterly curriculum for fall, winter and spring connects faith questions collected from Presbyterian youth with questions from The Study Catechism: Confirmation Version. Young people will bring their questions to the Bible and learn to navigate Scripture as they address issues of life and faith. The 13-session Leader's Guide includes engaging reproducible sheets, background information and multiple teaching options. Intended for younger youth, this curriculum will be easily adaptable for broadly graded youth programs.

Special Features

- Movie, music, media and technology connections
- Downloadable resources for leaders
- Multiple options for learning activities in each session
- Intentional emphasis on spiritual development, mission and justice, recreation, and spiritual arts throughout the curriculum
- Optional session enhancements include ideas and resources for connecting with families of youth, the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.), worship and more!

Faith Questions (geared toward high schoolers)

Patterned around the marks of membership from the Book of Order, these mini-courses are based on faith questions posed by older youth. Young people will be encouraged to look to Scripture and to our faith tradition in relevant, responsive ways. Each Leader's Guide contains a four- or six-week exploration of a faith question. Intended for older youth, this curriculum is easily adaptable for broadly graded youth programs.
