

Faithful Mission in a New Age Lecture Series, July 20-24, 2009

Sponsored by Columbia Theological Seminary, Montreat Conference Center, the Presbyterian Heritage Center, and the Adult Summer Club Program at Montreat

The presentations will address the ways in which the Presbyterian and Reformed tradition has engaged and is engaging mission both in North America and in other areas of the world. From the 19th century into the 21st century, the Presbyterian family has embraced missional challenges both nationally and internationally. The lectures promise to help us learn from the past and cast a new vision for the future.

Schedule

Meetings in Presbyterian Heritage Center, Montreat, 2:00-3:30 pm

Monday, July 20      Darrell Guder: Missional Church Theology and Praxis in the Global Church

Dr. Guder is the Academic Dean and Henry Winters Luce Professor of Missional and Ecumenical Theology, Princeton Theological Seminary, Princeton, New Jersey.

Tuesday, July 21      Bruce Reyes-Chow: Presbyterian Mission in a New Generation

The Rev Reyes-Chow is the founding pastor of Mission Bay Community Church and Moderator of the 218th General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church (USA).

Wednesday, July 22      Linda Bryant Valentine: Patterns of Global Mission, Past, Present and Future

Linda Valentine, an Elder, is Executive Director of the General Assembly Council (GAC), the national mission program arm of the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.).

Wednesday Evening: Adult Club of Montreat Program: Hymns of the Mission Field

Thursday, July 23      James A. Cogswell: Mission in a World of Hunger

Dr. Cogswell served as an evangelistic/educational missionary to Japan, Director of the PCUS World Hunger/World Service Program, and Director of Overseas Ministries for the National Council of Churches.

Friday, July 24      Erskine Clarke: "Mission and Imperialism: The Surprising Story of John Leighton Wilson"

Dr. Clarke, is Professor Emeritus of American Religious History, Columbia Theological Seminary.