

The Blaze

January 6-9, 2010

A Formative Gathering for Leaders of Youth

Sponsored by Montreat Conference Center and Project Burning Bush, a youth ministry initiative of Union Presbyterian Seminary, Richmond, VA.

Blaze: 1.) n. a large, fiercely burning fire; 2.) v. to mark out a path or route; 3.) v. to be a light; 4.) v. to pioneer; 5.) outburst; 6.) v. to set an example

The Blaze is a time for all who work with youth - as mentors, youth directors, associate pastors for youth, back home and small group leaders - to consider youth ministry afresh and alongside others who share your passion. The Blaze challenges you to pioneer new trails in youth ministry, nourishes and shapes you through that ministry, and sends you home inspired in your own call to work with youth.

KEY LEADERS

Tony Jones (keynote speaker), Tony is the author of The New Christians: Dispatches from the Emergent Frontier and is theologian-in-residence at Solomon's Porch in Minneapolis. A doctoral fellow in Practical Theology at Princeton Theological Seminary, he is the author of many books on Christian ministry and spirituality, including The Sacred Way: Spiritual Practices for Everyday Life. Tony has a history rich in youth ministry and is a sought-after speaker and consultant in the areas of emerging church, postmodernism, and Christian Spirituality.

Brian Blount (conference preacher). Brian is president and professor of New Testament at Union Presbyterian Seminary. Brian was called to this position in March 2007, after serving for 15 years as the Richard J. Dearborn Professor of New Testament Interpretation at Princeton Theological Seminary. Well known for his dynamic preaching, Brian reveals a compelling vision of the future church and God's Kingdom into which today's youth are living. The author of numerous books and articles, he also preaches and teaches classes in local congregations.
