

PITTSBURGH THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY VISIT EVENTS

Epiphany Visit Event Held January 8-9, 2010

Since 1794 Pittsburgh Theological Seminary has been bridging the Word and the world. During your upcoming visit to campus you'll explore the many ways that your bridge to the future can start here. You will learn about Pittsburgh Seminary's unique resources in fieldwork, urban issues, archaeology, dual degree programs, and more!

Though the main portion of each Pittsburgh Experience weekend occurs on Saturday, visitors are welcome to attend Friday afternoon sessions for conversations on vocational options, for a light meal and evening prayer, and for a tour of the city. You are encouraged to join us! Saturday will be filled with faculty-led workshops, tours of campus, information from our admissions and financial aid officers, and fellowship opportunities with current students. Explore your options—and we hope—begin building your bridge to the future.

Overnight housing will be provided. There is no fee for this event. Spouses, parents, or family members are welcome to attend.
