More about Mary-Todd Peters

Mary-Todd Peters is the DCE at New Hope Presbyterian Church, a certified Christian educator and a 1991 graduate of The Presbyterian School of Christian Education. Mary-Todd has served many congregations as a consultant, and has served in various forms of leadership for Montreat conferences, taught courses for The Association of Presbyterian Church Educators, and keynoted Presbytery youth retreats. Originally from Morganton, N.C., she has called Chapel Hill home since 1985 when she started UNC. She is the mother of a teenage daughter, Kayley, and twin tweens (say that 3 times fast!), Rachel and Melissa. Mary-Todd is married to Mark and enjoys reading, horseback riding, hiking in the mountains, swimming, cheering for UNC and doing all things with her family.
